This year is a very special one because on Friday September 16th starting at 5 pm at Dufresne Park, we start the All Town Community Event with FIREWORKS! These are from the Charter Days rain date. We will be having entertainment, music and food there. There is a $5.00 per car parking fee.

Then on Saturday September 17th, on the Common (235 State Street in Granby) our 7th Annual Steeple Run/Walk starts at 9 am. This is a 4 mile run/walk benefit for the Food Bank of Western Massachusetts.

Sign up before August 31st, and get a free Wayne Gagnon Art Work "Stomp Out Hunger" Wick-away collectable shirt. (Registration is $25.00 for adults and 12 and under $15.00, School Team rates are available).

Prizes to be given to 1st place finishers in each age group as well as best times for Male and Female runners.

Next, on the same day on the Common (235 State Street in Granby) from 10 am to 4 pm is the DINO FEST 2016. (aka "The Dinosaur Arts, Crafts, and Music Festival") Yabadabadoo !! The festival is estimated to bring in 1200+ people during the one-day celebration of the town's heritage and talent. This year, along with a fantastic Art and Writing Exhibit, we'll have over 40 Crafters with must-have items for sale. Numerous contests & games including Pie Eating Contest, Apple Pie Baking Contest, Tug of War, Sack Race, and more for young and young-at-heart. Antique & Classic cars and tractors on display along with all the town's local organizations will be featured.

Rusty Sounds Presents music from awesome groups... Lonesome Brothers, Ryan Walsh, and Pearl Street's "Battle of the Bands" winners Paper City Exile and West Summit Band...
What a Line-Up!!

A Horse Show sponsored by Lucky Horse Farm. (Contact Shaina Humphrey for more details.)

And at 5:30 pm the Granby Firefighters' Association Roast Beef Supper. (Contact Mike Pandora at the Fire Station for more details.)

So, as you can see, Granby Massachusetts is the place to be on September 16th and 17th, 2016. Hope to see you there... Peace, Dennis (The Deke)
