

From: Health & Homeland Alert Network (HHAN)
[alert-network@chip-dph.tch.harvard.edu]
Sent: Wednesday, March 03, 2010 10:33 AM
To: Lisa A. Anderson
Subject: HHAN Alert (Minor): RECALL-Castella Chicken Soup Base-Possible Salmonella

The following is an alert message from the Massachusetts Health and Homeland Alert Network:

Title: RECALL-Castella Chicken Soup Base-Possible Salmonella
Group: DPHFPP
Time Sent: 2010-03-03 10:32:39
Severity: Minor
Sensitivity: This message does not contain sensitive information.

Alert Identifier: IC5GR7P9MUID49IYSYO10J9JZ6W31CK

Alert Message:

Contact: Chris Valsamos, Vice President, 631-231-5500

March 02, 2010 Castella Imports of Hauppauge, NY, is voluntarily recalling Castella Chicken Soup Base because it has the potential to be contaminated with

The product was made using hydrolyzed vegetable protein manufactured by Basic Food Flavors, Inc. Las Vegas, Nevada. Basic Food Flavors initiated a recall of the hydrolyzed vegetable protein due to Salmonella contamination.

Castella Chicken Soup Base is distributed nationwide to food service (25 lbs. product) and sold in retail stores (1 lb. product).

Consumers that have the product may return it to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact Castella Imports at 631-231-5500, Monday thru Friday 9:00 am to 5:00 pm Eastern Standard Time.

Please find details in attachment...

The alert author has specified that this alert be sent to work email addresses only.

You have received this alert message based on your membership in the group named above and the contact preferences specified in your personal profile on the HHAN system. To change your contact preferences, please login to the HHAN system at <http://mass.gov/hhan>