Overcoming the Solid Waste Crisis

Franklin Patterson Hall
Hampshire College
893 West Street, Amherst

Save the Date!

Wednesday August 23rd

5:30 Reception & 6:00 -7:30 Panel

Free Public Forum

This forum will focus on legislation presently before the Massachusetts legislature concerned with recycling paint and mattresses using the Product Stewardship approach. This exciting approach holds the potential to be an important tool in gaining control of the solid waste crisis. Because you are a strong advocate for community action and the environment, we'd like to extend you an invitation!

We are pleased that this 90-minute forum will feature four prominent panelists! They will discuss the details and benefits of Product Stewardship as well as discuss the Paint and Mattress recycling laws. These measures have the potential to meaningfully decrease the quantity of material going to our landfills, which is an advantage for everyone and the environment!

Panel Members

Sen Susan Moran, State senator for Plymouth and Barnstable, senate Bill sponsor and member of the Zero Waste Caucus (ZWC)

Justine Fallon, Director of Operations, Mattress Recycling Council (MRC)

Waneta Trabert, Chair, Massachusetts Product Stewardship Council (PSC)

Join us for a panel presentation followed by questions from the audience.
